

Crispi played softball for Cal State Hayward from 1989-92. Her sophomore year she hit .362 and was selected All-Northern California Athletic Conference (NCAC) Honorable Mention. Her junior year she was named All-NCAC Second Team. Crispi enjoyed her finest season as senior when she was named All-West Region First Team and All-NCAC First Team for the 1992 NCAA Division II Runner-up Pioneers. That season, Crispi hit for a .386 batting average with a school record 33 stolen bases and 45 runs scored which was tied for a school record at the time.

She currently holds three school records including stolen bases in a game (4), season (33), and career (79). Crispi also ranks fourth all-time in runs scored (108) and hits (187). Crispi was inducted into the Cal State Hayward Athletic Hall of Fame in 2004.
